

“Just How Long is Too Long:
Finding the Sweet Spot for Various Mobility Scenarios”
An international multiplier event organized by the University of Marburg

Date: 07 February 2022 (2:00 pm – 5:00 pm, CET)
Venue: online (the link will be provided after registration)
Contact: erasmus@uni-marburg.de
Website: <https://www.hlitl-project-eu.uvsq.fr>
Speakers: Luca Alexa Erdei (ELTE); Joanna Leek, Marcin Rojek (ULodz); Johannes Weinreich, Carmen Birkle (UMarburg); Carla Álvarez Benito (EUF), Wim Gabriels, Paola Di Marzo (ESN); Jan Borm (UVSQ)

As forms of international student mobility are developing quickly between the poles of physical and virtual, as well as short and long-term, the question of the optimal design of various mobility types arises. This multiplier event focuses on time and duration as essential factors in the design of various international student mobility opportunities.

Agenda

TIME	CONTENT	SPEAKERS
2:00 – 2:15 pm	Welcome – Presentation of the agenda and speakers; project overview	Johannes Weinreich, UMarburg
2:15 – 3:00 pm	Impulse talks: review of the main findings of the project with a focus on duration and length of student mobility opportunities	HLiTL staff
3:00 – 3:15 pm	Presentation of the group work sessions and division into groups (participants move to breakout rooms)	Johannes Weinreich, UMarburg, HLiTL staff
3:15 – 4:00 pm	Group work and discussion based on key questions directed by HLiTL team members. All participants have the opportunity to select a session.	HLiTL staff
4:00 – 4:30 pm	Wrap-up and closing discussion: 5 min presentations of group work	Johannes Weinreich, UMarburg
4:30 – 5:00 pm	Get-together and informal exchange via interactive virtual space	all participants